Inquirers' Weekend:

An Introduction to Quaker Faith & Practice

A weekend with Emma Lapsansky-Werner & Chris Mohr

Explore the basics of Quaker faith and practice and discover how they connect with your own spiritual experience. You will find opportunities for worship, discussion, sharing, and questions with fellow seekers and knowledgeable experienced Quaker teachers. All who seek a solid introduction to Quakerism are welcome.

Emma Lapsansky-Werner is Emeritus Professor of History and Curator of the Quaker Collection at Haverford College, where she continues to teach Quaker history and consult with students and scholars visiting the Quaker Collection. Her research interests include Quaker history, African-American history, and especially the intersection of the two. Among her recent books are Quaker Aesthetics (with Anne Verplanck), and Back to Africa: Benjamin Coates and the American Colonization Movement (with Margaret Hope Bacon). She is a contributing author to The Oxford Handbook of Quaker Studies and to Quakers and Abolition. Emma is a member of Lansdowne Friends Meeting (PA),

Chris Mohr is a member of Green Street Monthly Meeting of Friends (PA), where he clerks the children and youth religious education committee. Before moving "back East" in 2011, Chris clerked San Francisco Monthly Meeting (CA) for four years. Since 2011 he has served as clerk of the board of trustees of Friends Publishing Corporation, publisher of Friends Journal and the QuakerSpeak video series. Currently Chris is executive director of Friends Center, the Quaker hub for peace and justice in Philadelphia. He lives with his wife Robin Mohr and two sons in Philadelphia.
