Our Life Is Love:
The Quaker Spiritual Journey

A weekend retreat with Marcelle Martin

From the beginning of Quakerism, the spiritual journey taken by Friends has radically transformed both those who undertake it and the world around them. In this weekend retreat we will explore the basic elements of that journey, as experienced by the first Friends and by Quakers in our time. We will also support one another in our own next steps toward more fully incarnating and expressing divine love and truth. Our time together will include presentations, discussion of brief passages by early Friends, worship, storytelling, sharing elements of our journeys, and listening for God's call to us in our time.

Marcelle Martin is a member of Chestnut Hill Meeting in Philadelphia. Her forthcoming book about ten essential elements of the Quaker spiritual journey, Our Life is Love, is being published by Inner Light Books. Marcelle was a core teacher of the School of the Spirit's program on The Way of Ministry, and for four years she was the resident Quaker Studies teacher at Pendle Hill. She has led retreats at Quaker meetings across the country. She is the author of two Pendle Hill pamphlets, Invitation to a Deeper Communion and Holding One Another in the Light. Her blog, “A Whole Heart,” is at www.awholeheart.com.

Marcelle’s new book is due to be released soon.
