

Silke Springorum grew up in Germany and moved to Montclair, NJ fifteen years ago, where she practices occupational therapy and is an environmental organizer. She is the leader of the Green Sanctuary Committee of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Montclair and co-leads the Deep Ecology Literacy Series, which showcases positive and working solutions to our current environmental and social challenges. Recently she co-facilitated the Transition Montclair group. Her environmental justice activism is firmly grounded in spiritual reflection and practice.