Experience the color and passion of Latin American music, art, and politics. Savor the rich cultural heritage and dramatic landscapes of Latin America, the pulsing rhythms and ecstatic melodies of its folk-music, and the cross-fertilizing influences of the Old and New Worlds. The exuberant expression in music from Central and South America has inspired composers around the world. While enjoying vibrant music in stunning videos and live performances, we will also try to understand the variegated cultures from which it springs. Sometimes, as with Gustavo Dudamel’s highly regarded ‘El Sistema’ program, the underlying politics are complex and controversial. Among the principal composers we will explore are Mexico’s Carlos Chavez, Cuba’s Paquito D’Rivera, and Argentina’s Alberto Ginastera.

Leader Karl Middleman is noted for his blend of scholarship with showmanship. He has lectured for the Philadelphia Orchestra over 50 times and has received many awards from national foundations. His presentations for the PA Council on the Humanities were broadcast on television and radio. He currently teaches at Temple University and Cabrini University.

Register online at www.pendlehill.org or by calling 610-566-4507, ext. 137

Join us for New Year’s Eve at Pendle Hill

In addition to Karl’s engaging program, you will be treated to a delicious home-cooked New Year’s Eve dinner, lively musical entertainment with Latin Fiesta and our traditional candlelit midnight meeting for worship.