

Continuing Revolution:

Building Intentional Lives in a Volatile World

JUNE 1-6, 2018

A Pendle Hill Conference for Young Adult Friends

As young adults today, we confront global existential threats, political and social disruption, economic uncertainty, AND exponential technological change, instantaneous communication and access to information, and distractions unknown to previous generations.

Continuing Revolution can help us live our lives intentionally, faithfully following our Inward Teacher, and doing the work that is ours to do in the world.

We will form a community of young adult Friends and seekers to explore ways to live centered lives of intention. We will have the opportunity to establish patterns and practices that support personal and communal transformation. An array of presenters and workshops will help us focus on four particular facets of our lives: work, love and relationships, justice and community, and spiritual practices. Enjoy opportunities for reflection, sharing, worship, and skill-building with other young adults (ages 18-35) from a wide range of backgrounds and experiences in the nurturing environment of Pendle Hill.

PENDLE HILL

A Quaker Study, Retreat, and Conference Center

For more information and resources, visit www.pendlehill.org, or email rhennesy@pendlehill.org