Clerking: Serving the Community with Joy and Confidence

A weekend with Arthur Larrabee and Steve Mohlke

This is an opportunity for both new and experienced clerks of Friends' meetings and committees to meet and think together about the role of presiding clerk. It is expected that each person will leave the weekend with new energy and enthusiasm for being a clerk, feeling well grounded in both the theoretical and the practical. There will be handouts, exercises, and opportunities to share experiences, with most work being done in a whole group setting.

Arthur Larrabee is a lifelong Friend and a former clerk of both Philadelphia Yearly Meeting and Central Philadelphia Monthly Meeting. Currently, he serves as clerk of the Pendle Hill Board. He has led many workshops on clerking. With a minute for religious service from his meeting, Arthur's current work is teaching and consulting on Quaker decision-making and clerking.

Steve Mohlke is a longtime Friend and former clerk of Ithaca Monthly Meeting. He served as co-clerk for the 2017 Friends General Conference Gathering. He currently serves as General Secretary of New York Yearly Meeting.
