

Paint, Passion & Purpose

June 3-September 27, 2018

Tree Rooms Gallery in Main House

Reception, June 17, 2-4pm

This juried exhibit features the paintings of seven artists responding to the question:

“How does my creativity fuel my passions and my purpose?”

Kendra Biddick · Lisa BurgerLentz

Jennifer Crony Chernak · Carol Cober · Margo Lehman

Ruth Seeley · Adele Wayman

“Creating is a process of surrendering to the messages that come.”

~ Carol Cober

“Holding others in the light is a deep and powerful way of living, parallel to my own spiritual practice of Buddhist meditation.”

~ Adele Wayman

“Plein Air painting lets me experience the presence of the Divine in nature.”

~ Jennifer Crony Chernak

“When I am painting, I am at peace.”

~ Margo Lehman

“I can’t imagine ever stopping learning and being excited by the infinite ways in which watercolor can be put on paper.”

~ Ruth Seeley

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

338 Plush Mill Road
 Wallingford, Pennsylvania
 610-566-4507, ext. 137
www.pendlehill.org

PENDLE HILL

A Quaker Study, Retreat, and Conference Center