

What Does Justice Look Like? Moving Towards a Just Peace in Palestine and Israel

Draft Program, December 14-16, 2018

70 years of Quaker engagement in Palestine

A conference sponsored jointly by the American Friends Service Committee and Pendle Hill.

Programming begins each day at 9am in the Barn

Time	FRIDAY Dec. 14	SATURDAY Dec. 15	SUNDAY Dec. 16
7:30am-8:30am		Breakfast	Breakfast
8:30am-9:00am		Optional Quaker Meeting for Worship	Optional Quaker Meeting for Worship
9:00am-10:30am		From the Nakba to the Great March of Return: Gaza's Predicament and the Need for Prefiguring Justice with Jihad Abusalim, Walaa Al Ghussein, and Ali Abdal Bari	BDS/Congressional Advocacy/Direct Action/ preparing for action in small groups, mechanisms for accountability
10:30am-10:45am		Break	Break
10:45am-12:00pm		Workshop with Dawood Hammoudeh, Sahar Vardi, and Suha Salman Mousa	Small groups report back This work as a spiritual commitment, some gathering in, spiritual grounding Closing circle
12:00pm-1:00pm		Lunch	Lunch/Departure
1:30pm-3:30 pm		Action toward deeper change: Stories from the movement with Rae Aibileah, Nadia Ben-Youssef, Andrew Kadi, Dalit Baum, and Jennifer Bing
3:30 pm-3:45 pm		Getting into small groups/break
4:00 pm-6:00pm	4-6pm registration	Small group reflection with queries, report backs on action steps
6:00pm-7:00pm	Dinner	Dinner
7:15pm-9:00pm	Opening Plenary: Hanna Alshaikh; Nancy Gallagher; Geoffrey Levin	Plenary Welcome: Joyce Ajlouny Film: Naila & the Uprising Panel/Movements for Change FREE AND OPEN TO PUBLIC	