Illuminate Summer Speaker Series

A collaboration between Barclay Press and Pendle Hill
2nd and 4th Mondays from June 14 to August 23, 7:30–9:00pm ET via Zoom

Join us for a series of evening discussions with authors of the Barclay Press Illuminate Friends Bible study summer curriculum on Ephesians, Philippians, and Colossians. Speakers will share insights from their studies as they prepared this summer's lessons and "Friendly Perspectives." The Illuminate curriculum is used by Friends' groups all over the country.

From the Illuminate study guide:

"The letters to the Ephesians, Philippians, and Colossians are considered Paul's prison letters, written while under arrest for preaching the good news of Jesus, a message that was good news to many who were marginalized within the Roman Empire. Written in a particular time and place, these letters also speak across the years, bringing to mind imprisonments experienced by early Friends in the 1600s and Civil Rights leaders in the twentieth century as they lived Jesus' message as good news for the poor, stood for equality, and rejected empty religious practices. How will the Spirit speak to Friends through these letters today?"

SCHEDULE:

June 14: Ephesians 1, with Cherice Bock and Sammy Sanders
June 28: Ephesians 4, with Jennifer Higgins-Newman and Sara Beth Terrell
July 12: Ephesians 5, with Jaimie Mudd and Melinda Wenner Bradley
July 26: Philippians 1, with Cherice Bock and Dennis Edwards
August 9: Philippians 4, with Dennis Edwards and Carolyne Jordan
August 23: Colossians 2, with Brian Drayton and Rhiannon Grant
