

REGISTRATION
Pay as led and able
$0-$40 (suggested)

Giving Voice to Our Dreams

On Campus: May 18, 2:00-4:00 PM, ET

A Black-led, BIPOC-centered end-of-residency celebration with Rev. Rhetta Morgan to explore individual and collective sound as medicine through humming, chanting, and sound-bathing. All are welcome (and we mean it!).

Pendle Hill Artist-in-Residence Reverend Rhetta Morgan invites you to celebrate the end of her residence at Pendle Hill, in this Black-led, BIPOC-centered workshop open to all. Explore individual and collective sound as medicine, through humming, chanting, and sound-bathing, as we experiment with the creative possibilities of vocal expression.

Rev. Rhetta Morgan

Follow us @ PendleHillUSA

PENDLE HILL
A Quaker Study, Retreat, and Conference Center