

Celebrate the New Year at

PENDLE HILL

Late Idyll - Music and Aging

On Campus: Dec 28, 2024 - Jan 1, 2025

A New Year's retreat with Karl Middleman to listen, watch, reflect and meditate, and find ourselves anew.

An idyll can be a breathing space, inviting us into reflection and inspiration. As we age, music can provide these idyllic touchstones for contemplation and motivation. It goes to places words cannot reach. It follows us gamely as we traverse various life stages. Many of the most remarkable works by great composers including Beethoven, Brahms, Faure, Liszt, Verdi, Isabella Leonarda, Joan Tower, and Elliott Carter came late in their lives, defying physical aging by taking bold musical leaps.

Private Room: $995 | Shared Room: $810 | Commuter: $595

Karl Middleman

This retreat culminates in an alcohol-free New Year's Eve celebration, with dinner, a concert in the Barn, and midnight candlelit worship.

Learn more and register at pendlehill.org/newyears

