The Clownful Quaker: Strengthening Our Imagination in Service of the Beloved Community

On-campus: Nov 16, 2024, 9:30am—5:00pm

In the face of uncertainty and despair, our faith calls us to spiritually fortify ourselves in the journey toward the Beloved Community. Join Dwight Dunston, Quaker clown, to engage your imagination and creativity in this collective work.

Our imaginations are going to be key in this next chapter of our individual and collective journey, and being spiritually fortified as active agents of our imaginations and creativity is becoming more and more essential. In this workshop, join Quaker clown Dwight Dunston in activities, conversations, and embodied practices that give voice and movement to your highest dreams, and stretch you to go to the edges of your creativity, as we build the Beloved Community.
