Primitive Quakerism Revived: Returning to Friends' Roots as a Radically Transformative Prophetic Movement

On Campus: Tuesdays, Apr 1-29, 2025

A weekly seminar series with Peter Blood during the Spring Term on the ways that Quakerism has evolved from the early Friends.

That early Quaker movement looked and acted very differently from all the branches and variants of this Society of Friends today. In this course, we will do a deep dive into what that early Friends community was about, where and how Friends have departed from their faith and witness, and how Friends today might once again be a transformative prophetic force in the world around us capable of "shaking the earth for ten miles around".
