Nothing in the Way of Beauty Film Screening and Discussion

Hybrid: Mar 31, 2025

Join director Sue Schardt and featured artists Chelsea, Tina, and Phoebe for a hybrid screening and interactive discussion of their film, Nothing in the Way of Beauty.

Director Sue Schardt made this work while in residence at the Samuel S. Fleisher Art Memorial in Philadelphia as she simultaneously began an extended, intermittent sojourn at Pendle Hill in January 2020. She recognizes the film rising, in part, from the sanctuary of Pendle Hill and – in particular – the continuing community gathered daily for worship via Zoom from the start of the pandemic. She and the artists featured in the film will share their reflections after the screening.

Disclaimer: This film is recommended for mature audiences. It includes nudity, references to addiction and death-by-overdose
